

NARANJO MUSEUM
of NATURAL
HISTORY
LUFKIN * TEXAS

Field Trip Information

The goal of the Naranjo Museum of Natural History is to educate East Texas about the history of the Earth, the life of the dinosaurs, and early human cultures. The Naranjo Museum of Natural History is the perfect teaching tool and can be used to educate students and bring to life the wonders of natural History.

Learning Opportunities here at the Naranjo Museum.

1. Math

Numbers, Percentages, Time, Measurement, Size, Weight, Scale, Grouping, Money, Counting, Geometry, Probability, Statistics, Algebra.

2. Science

Time, Temperature, Measurement, Weather, Environment, Ages, Pangaea, Rocks, Rock Types, Rock Cycle, Minerals, Animals, Elements, Maps, Space, Fossils, Fossilization, Radiometric Dating, Animal Grouping, Plants, Animal Relationships (prey/predator), photosynthesis, space, meteors, Biology, Geology, Zoology, Chemistry, Paleontology, Archeology.

3. Vocabulary

Sediment, Dinosaurs, Fossils, Paleontology, Environment, Carnivore, herbivore, Preserved, Pressure, Mollusks, Squid, Omnivore, Gastropod, Trade, Planets, Solar System, Environment, Predator, Prey, Protected, Characteristics, Organism, Species, Marine, Mineral, Gem, Attributes, Organic, Inorganic, Igneous Rock, Metamorphic Rock, Sedimentary rock, Chlorophyll, Photosynthesis, Geology.

4. Social Skills

Organization, Listening, Speaking, Asking Questions, Answering Questions, Conversation, Obedience, Taking Turns, Sharing, Structure, Imagining, Thinking, Awareness, Playing, Discipline, Budgeting (gift shop), Politeness, Manners, Participation, Self Preservation.

5. English

Grammar, Tenses, upper/Lower case, Spelling, Vocabulary, Brainstorming, Writing, Grouping, Definitions, Reading, Compare, Contrast, Research

6. History

Earth History, Animal History, Human History, Egyptian Culture, Roman Culture, Greek Culture, Native American Culture, US History, Space, NASA.

Along with these teaching opportunities, The Naranjo museum of Natural History will be developing teaching lessons and curriculum by grade, to help teachers make the most of their visit. Curriculum will include packets for teachers, giving them information about our exhibits and what the students should expect to learn and knowledge hunt packets for the students, so that they can learn through interaction with our exhibits.

Organizations that can benefit from a Field Trip to the Naranjo Museum of Natural History:

Public Schools, Private Schools, Day Cares, After-School Programs, Church Groups, Youth Groups, Community Clubs and Organizations, Nursing Homes, Assisted Living, special needs groups,

Field Trip Pricing

(For Schools, Groups, and other organizations)

Students (ages 3-18): $5.00

Adults: $7.50

Teachers/Staff: Free

Parents/family with Field Trip: $7.50

Field Trip Includes:

Guided tour of the museum by staff

Full Use of Classroom for lessons/lunch

Access to Museum Gift Shop

In order to benefit from the full Field Trip Experience, groups must schedule their visit in advance.