VIP Family Membership Guidelines

Contact/Communication: Membership communication is maintained through emails. Members are asked to check emails regularly to be updated about announcements and information about weekend activities. Veronica Amoe heads up the VIP Family membership program and can be contact via email or her cellphone: veronica@naranjomuseum.org (936)-404-9202/

Payment: The VIP family membership is $80.00 per session. Payment is due at the beginning of each session. This payments go towards maintaining the program and helps pay for weekend activities and events.

Junior Volunteer Times: Children who are part of the VIP Family membership program and are in 3rd-7th grade, are able to be Junior Volunteers at the museum. Junior Volunteer meet every Tuesday from 4:00pm-5:30pm. During that time, children will take part in special museum projects, relevant crafts, games and other activities. Children will also be able to meet and spend time with other children who share an interest in Dinosaurs and Natural History.

Parents are not required to stay while children take part in their volunteer time. Should a medical emergency occur, actions will be take to ensure the safety of your child. This may include calling a nurse from A Pineyoods home health or calling 911 to transport your child to the nearest hospital. Junior Volunteers are expected to treat the museum, other volunteers and museum staff with respect. Children who are not able to make good choices during their time at the museum will not be able to participate in the program.

Special Events: Events and activities are scheduled throughout the sessions. Activities in the past have included local fossil digs, trips to historic sites and all-night lock-ins. The majority of the weekend activities require a parent or guardian to accompany the children. Admission coverage will depend on the cost of the activity.
