How to Register for Camp

To register your child for summer camp, you must submit a registration form along with full payment for each week your child plans to attend. Campers who are registered by Friday, April 17th (5:00pm), 2020 will get a FREE camp shirt. After this date, parents will be able to order shirts for $7 until Friday, May 8th (by 5:00pm).

Registration Forms

One Registration Form and one Health Care Form should be completed for each child you are registering for camp. All sections of the registration form and health care form should be completed including release signatures. Registration is not complete without payment and completed forms. Your child's camp place will not be saved without a completed registration.

Payment

To complete registration, you must pay full amount for each week your child is registered for. Payment can be taken over the phone. The Naranjo Museum accepts: Mastercard, visa, discover, cash or check.

At the Museum

You may register your child at the museum, we have forms available and you can pay at that time. Check www.naranjomuseum.org for hours.

Email

You can print off a registration form online and submit it via email. This can be done by either scanning the registration form or taking a very clear photo of it using your smart phone.

Registration forms need to be emailed to Veronica Amoe at veronica@naranjomuseum.org.

Once the form is received, you will be called for payment and emailed your conformation after payment. If you are not contacted within 2 business days, check email address and if it correct, call Veronica Amoe at (936)-404-9202.

Mail

Registration forms need to be mailed to:

Naranjo Museum of Natural History
5104 South 1st. St.
Lufkin, TX 75901

If you are not contacted for payment 3 or 4 days after you mail the registration form, contact Veronica Amoe at (936)-404-9202

Cancellations/Refunds

Due to high demand for camp positions, there are no full refunds for completed camp registration. To receive a 50% refund, you need to email a cancellation request to Veronica Amoe at veronica@naranjomuseum.org 10 days or more before the starting date of your camp week. You will not receive a refund if you cancel less than 10 days before the starting date of your camp week.

Camp Supervision: Camps are instructed and supervised by qualified staff and volunteers. All museum staff and volunteers have been through extensive background checks and training.

Camp Shirt : Campers who are registered by Friday, April 17th (5:00pm), 2020 will get a FREE camp shirt. After this date, parents will be able to order shirts for $7 until Friday, May 8th (by 5:00pm).

Check In/Check Out: You must sign your child in and out upon drop off and pick up.

Lunches: Parents need to pack their children a sack lunch, a couple of snacks and plenty of water.

Clothing: Children are asked to wear comfortable clothes and shoes that can get messy. Closed-toe shoes are recommended for outside play

Toys/Electronics: Toys and electronics are permitted for children to use during free time or before/after care. The Naranjo Museum and staff are not responsible for any loss or damages to anything sent with your child.

Outside Play: Campers are taken outside after lunch for supervised playtime. Temperatures are closely monitored and children are not taken outside during particularly hot days.

Cancellation Policy: Due to high demand for camp positions, there are no full refunds for completed camp registration. To receive a 50% refund, you need to email a cancellation request to Veronica Amoe at veronica@naranjomuseum.org 10 days or more before the starting date of your camp week. You will not receive a refund if you cancel less than 10 days before the starting date of your camp week.

Medical Policy: Museum staff are only permitted to administer basic first aid to children unless otherwise stated in the child's medical information on registration form. Parents will be called should children feel ill, children running fever or throwing up will be asked to be picked up. In the event of a medical emergency, assistance will be called from Dr. Naranjo's Home Health company (next door to the museum). If necessary, 911 will be called and first response will take children to the closest hospital. At this time, we are unable to accommodate children with special medical, behavioral and/or mental needs.

Camp Rules/ Discipline Policy: Camp rules are explained the first day of camp and are gone over throughout the week. Camp rules are: Be kind to each other, Be respectful to the teacher, museum visitors and museum property, Participate in lessons and activities and of course have fun. Camp rules are explained with an emphasis on choices and communication. Should a child's choices cause continued disruption or harm to the other campers, you will be asked to pick up your child. You may bring them back the following day should you choose, however, if a camper's choices compromise the safety and well being of the other campers, your child may be asked to not return to camp. There are no refunds for camper dismissal as a result of poor discipline. If your child does not choose to cause harm to other campers, but their behavioral patterns/choices continue to distract or disrupt campers or camp activities, you may be asked to pick up your child. There is not enough camp staff to care for campers one-on-one. If you have any questions regarding behavioral expectations after reading camp information, please contact Veronica Amoe at veronica@naranjomuseum.org.

Frequently Asked Questions

How can I guarantee my child gets the camp they want? Camp dates are released in early March at which time registration is open. Camp weeks can fill up quickly, registering your child early can ensure that your child gets into the week they want. For future camps, know that Museum Members are given priority registration and a discount.

Can my child be placed in a different age group? No. Age groups are separated for a purpose and no exceptions will be made.

Can I bring lunch to my child? Can I stay and eat lunch with them? Yes, you are welcome to bring your child lunch, however, there is very limited space in the classroom and we cannot allow parents to stay for lunch.

I registered my child after the tshirt deadline, can I pay to get a camp shirt for my child? Unfortunately, our printer requires a bulk order and we cannot take orders for shirts after the deadline.

What do children do during Museum Time? Free Museum Time is a much cherished time for the campers, it is time for them to spend in the museum before we are open to the public. Along with giving them time to look at the exhibits and spend time with friends, we also set up activity stations such as legos, bead making and more. Children are also permitted to use electronics or play with toys they brought during this time. Though the children are permitted to play in the museum, we do not allow the children to run in the museum, and after a warning, children who continue to run are asked to sit out a minute for every time they are called on. Children are fully supervised during free museum time.

How to I contact my child during camp? You should first call (936)-639-3466 to get in touch with the museum who will inform camp teachers. If it is an emergency, you may contact Veronica directly at (936)-404-9202.

Can I come to camp to give my child needed medication? Absolutely, as we are not allowed to administer medication to children, you are welcome to come and give your child medicine. Please inform of us the schedule on Health Care Form, or for unscheduled medicine, you may call the museum ahead of time.

Are movies shown at camp? How are movies selected? Movies are mostly shown during morning drop off times and lunch. Movies are not shown during instructional time. Movies are selected based on relevance to the week's topic and viewing age group.

Are all the weeks different? If the camp has the same name, it will be the same curriculum. Numerous weeks of the same camp are offered to allow more campers to experience each theme.
