3. Be respectful to the museum and its property
4. Participate in activities

5. HAVE FUN!!

Camp rules are explained with an emphasis on choices and communication. The child will be given a verbal warning about their poor choice and reminded of camp rules, second time the child will be separated and given time (the amount of their age) to reflect on their choices. Should a child's choices cause continued disruption or harm to the other campers, you will be asked to pick up your child. You may bring your child back the following day, however if a camper's choices compromise the safety and well-being of the other campers, your child will be asked not to return. If your child does not choose to cause harm to other campers, but their behavioral patterns/choices continue to distract or disrupt campers or camp activities, you may be asked to pick up your child. There are no refunds for camper dismissal as a result of poor behavior.

There are not enough camp staff to care for campers one-on-one. If you have questions regarding behavioral expectations after reading camp information, please contact Erin Gentry at eringentry@naranjomuseum.org.
